

(i) Programme No.: 2.16 Programme Title : Certificate course in 'Creative Writing and Translation'.

The Department of languages at NCERT has developed a new bilingual (Hindi & English) course in 'Creative Writing and Translation' for Higher Secondary Stage. The Course has also been introduced by CBSE in the schools. There is a felt need that language teachers not only require training in this course but also need to develop creative skills among themselves. The proposed certificate course will give teachers an idea how to run this course at the school level and also to those who want to learn about creative writing, translation and media writing. The course will be useful for both teachers and students to combine the knowledge of language & literature with everyday social experiences and the discussions associated with them.

(ii) Specific Objectives :

- i. To prepare resource persons for the course in 'Creative Writing and translation'.
- ii. To understand translation as a creative activity.
- iii. To become familiar with media writing.
- iv. To develop creative expression.
- v. To familiarize teachers on how to develop materials for learners for this course.

(iii) Methodology :

This certificate course will be of 4 weeks duration. The transaction will be in face to face mode through discussions, lectures, workshops, group work, pair work, presentations (audio-video) and projects. One field visit will also be organised. The participants will get an opportunity to have face to face interaction with eminent litterateur, artists and media persons.
